Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Lincoln Minster School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- Initially the complaint should be made in writing to the Examinations Officer

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Jon Tyler, Head of Centre

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Put their complaint in writing (email accepted)

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre or an appointed member of SLT with no direct involvement will investigate the complaint and report the findings and outcome.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 2 working weeks

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Put their appeal in writing (email accepted) to the Head of Centre (Jon Tyler)

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- Jon Tyler, Head of Centre

It will be the responsibility of The Head of Centre to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
